

UNITE for families

Pro Bono Family Law Project

Family law cases are some of the most difficult, often involving issues that affect the emotional, physical, and financial well being of children and families for years to come. The Unite For Families Pro Bono Family Law Project can help! Register TODAY to attend a free Unite For Families family law clinic even and receive legal assistance from trained professionals who will help you understand your rights, options, and responsibilities, and identify the steps needed to move forward. This is not a workshop; you will receive a private, face-to-face consultation and advice about your specific case. Call today for an appointment.
